It's the start of another busy day at the Bull Stone House, and sometimes things get a little mixed up. Can you help Sarah, William and the children sort it all out before it's time for bed?

Before they can start their day,
the family needs a good breakfast.
Can you match each picture to the food or drink it produces?

Time to rise and shine,
William and Sarah!

Uh Oh! Seems like things got a little jumbled. Can you help the children unscramble their names?

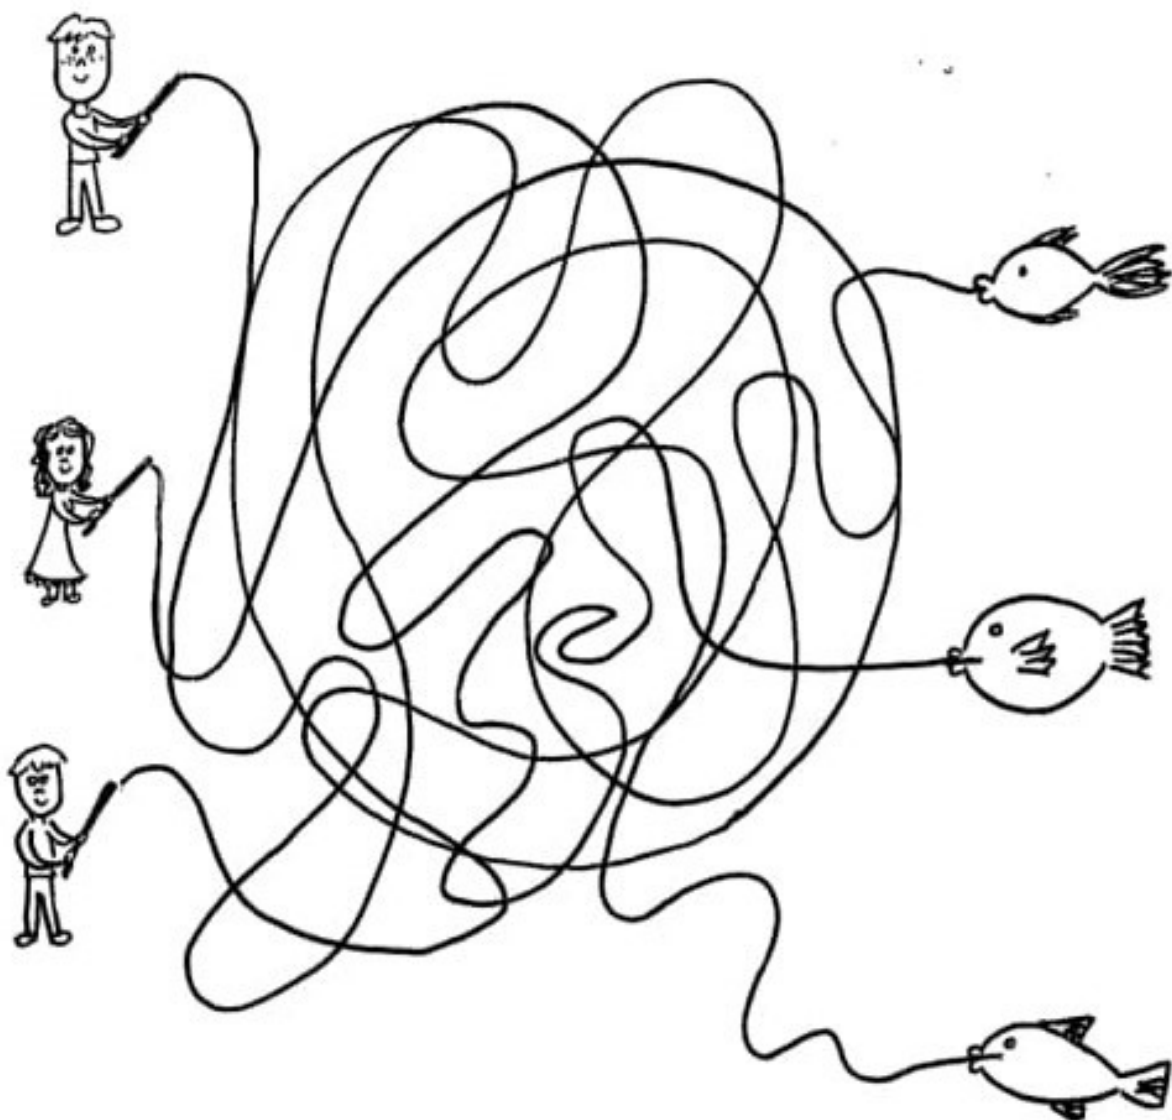

Here's John taking his favorite horse out of the New World Dutch Barn, for a good brushing!

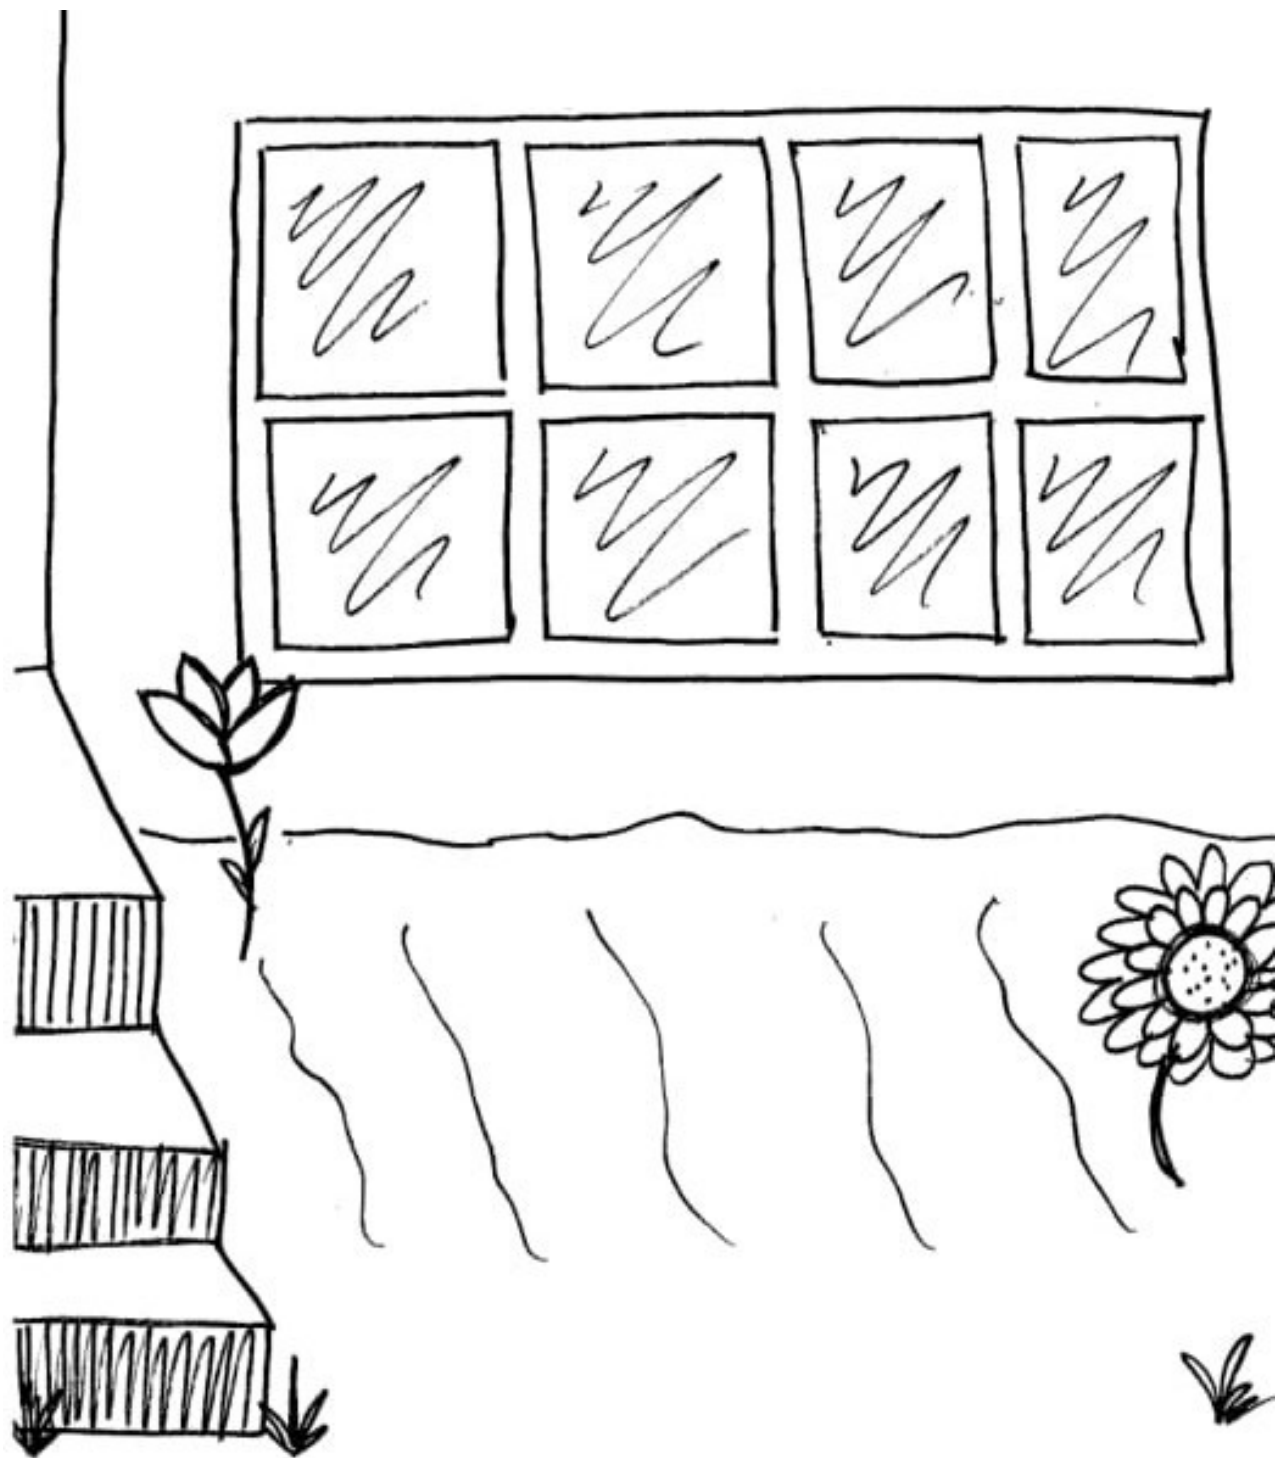

Here's Margaret trying on the dress that her mother, Sarah, helped her to make Oh No! Ten bunnies are loose in the garden and Ann, Esther and Mary need your help. Find all ten bunnies before they eat everything in the garden!

Isaac, Eleanor, and Thomas went fishing but got their lines all tangled! Can you figure out which fish belongs to each of them?

Sarah wants to plant a garden outside of her Kitchen window. Will you draw some beautiful flowers to help her?

Phew that was a long day! Thanks for all of your help. Now William, Sarah, and the children can get a good night's sleep before the start of a new day.
